Celebrate-a-Railroad: The Soo Line

Back for its third year is Trainfest Celebrate-a-Railroad historical display, this year featuring the Soo Line. The museum quality exhibit celebrates historical railroads. Trainfest partners with railroad historical societies to share photos and memories of the railroads as well as educate attendees on history and feature models of these locomotives.

This year's panels document the history of the Soo Line and the people who ran, rode and remember it. Viewing the exhibit is included as part of the ticket cost. Attendees are able to wander through the exhibit at their leisure.
